

Rochelle Heard Jones, BA, JD

Born in West Point, Mississippi. Grew up on the Great Westside of Chicago with her parents and 9 siblings.

Graduate of Sangamon State University and Antioch School of Law.

Rochelle has worked with grassroots organizations and not for profits for many years serving in the community.

Professional employment includes: Cook County Public Defender's Office; Public Welfare Coalition; Department of Children and Family Services; Habilitative Systems, Inc.; Breakthrough Urban Ministries. Each experience has enriched her as a professional and servant of God's people.

Rochelle has a strong belief in God and lives by her Faith. Her motto is: "STILL STANDING". She is a community volunteer and serves on the board of the following organizations: Hadiya's Promise; 24 OUR House and Women making A Difference. Rochelle most recently became Vice President of the Chicago Chapter of Epicureans, Inc.

She is a member of Fellowship Baptist Church and serves in the I3 Student Ministry, VIBE; and Visitation Ministry. Proud Mother of three extraordinary children; Dueshazer, Kendra and Klyn. NANA to Ethan Devon (Biscuit) and Elam Donovan (Muffin).